

Café Station

Internet café domain.

This is a café welcome to visitors, including travelers, tourists, migrant workers, personal in the military, and students. People who are away from home, have a need to step out of the house, or do not have the resources available for surfing the internet and more.

Domain includes information of the following:

Employee Information

Customer with membership information

Membership list over 18*

*If there is a restricted sitting area for movie viewings, library, or bookshelves for mature viewers over 18.

List of computers

List of PC computers (with usb ports).

List of PC computers (tinted screens, without open usb ports).

List of Mac computers.

List of Computers in use

List of backup computers in storage

Employee Computers/Work Computers with personal information.

Non-Electronic filing cabinet (credit card information, customer signatures, etc)*

*Credit Cards if this is paid café and not a free library

List of internet servers (in use)

Possible Addition Lists:

List of Books and graphic novels.

List of movies.

List video games.

*If this café has movies or video game, there will be inventory list of the game systems, media players, and televisions. The list may say the locations of the electronic devices. There may be a list of what material is only available to older members (for example, R rated movies, Mature rated video games).